- We'll follow-up the next day to schedule regular lessons!

Recitals, group lessons, and festivals help motivate students towards excellence, give performance experience, help students engage with other musicians, and expose them to music they may not otherwise hear or instruments they may be able to play one day. These are all included in your tuition and are part of a carefully structured program. The more that your student can take advantage of, the more complete their lesson experience will be!

What if I need to miss a lesson?

Your tuition holds your student's spot in your teacher's schedule. If you cancel your lesson for any reason, or are a no-show, your teacher will continue to hold your spot. However, you will not be credited for cancelled or missed lessons. Because specific times are set aside for specific students, a student who does not attend a lesson will simply miss the benefit of that lesson. Please be assured that your tuition pays for far more than just the time your teacher spends with your child. There are no refunds, discounts or make-ups given unless your teacher is unable to teach the promised number of lessons.

If you are unable to keep your scheduled lesson time, here are a few options:

- Online lesson with your teacher.
- Attend an extra hour-long group lesson during the year.
- Take advantage of one of the "make-up" weeks that our teachers offer throughout the year.

Student Expectations:

- Ensure student success by setting up a daily practice time. Young students should plan to spend 10-20 minutes a day practicing, and that number will increase as they progress in age and experience.
- All students are expected to perform in at least one large recital a year.
- Participate in at least one group lesson a year.
- Be respectful of their teacher and complete the weekly assignments to the best of their ability.

Create Lesson Time Success!

- Provide a distraction free environment during lesson and practice times.
- Provide a pleasant, clean, and organized space for your student to work. Lesson books should be out and ready for your teacher, electronics put away or turned off, and conversations removed to another room.
- Feel free to listen in on the lesson but allow your teacher and student to work together during the lesson time. If you have questions, save them for the end. This will allow your student and the teacher to develop a positive relationship, and for your student to begin to take ownership of their lessons.
